

DESIGN SERVICES FOR FIRE ALARM AND VOICE COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS HOSPITAL
Chicago, IL

HOH provided the design for the installation of the Fire Alarm and Voice Communication System for the University of Illinois Hospital. The project scope included the following:

- Survey existing conditions
- Prepare a Code Study Report
- Prepare Schematic Design Drawings
- Provide preliminary construction cost estimate
- Prepare Design Development Documents
- Provide detailed construction cost estimate
- Prepare Construction Documents
- Bid Evaluation
- Review shop drawings
- Witness acceptance testing

The project is scheduled to be completed in 2009.